

Grace Brethren Jr/Sr High School Clubs

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY: Mr. Nandor and Mr. Koster

Objective: The purpose of this organization shall be to create enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to develop Christian character in the students of Grace Brethren High School. Scholarship – Service – Leadership – Character Eligibility

- Sophomores, Junior, and Seniors
- Cumulative 3.5 GPA
- Demonstrated Service, Character, and Leadership on Campus

CSF/CJSF CLUB INFORMATION: Mr. Walter

Objective: The California Scholarship Federation emphasizes high standards of service, scholarship, and citizenship for California middle and high school students. CSF (High School) and CJSF (Junior High School) encourage service to the school and community while fostering pride in scholastic achievement. CSF and CJSF are clubs for those who achieve high academic honors.

NATIONAL ART HONOR SOCIETY: Mrs. Zale

Objective: The objective of the National Art Honor Society is to inspire and recognize students who have an outstanding ability in art or who wish to improve their artistic skills.

THESPIAN NATIONAL SOCIETY: Miss Masie, Mrs. Orona

Objective: The objective of the Thespian Society is to build a strong creative arts core in the school, to give students the opportunity to be recognized as actors, and technicians, and to expose students to multiple types of theatrical experiences.

MOCK TRIAL: Mr. Cooper and Mr. Hall

Grace Brethren Club Opportunities

Objective: Mock Trial is designed to give students a basic understanding of the law and how our legal system works, an insight into the various roles in our justice system, and developing critical thinking skills needed to perform these roles.

ROBOTICS: Mr. Harabedian

Objective:

- Build your own autonomous robot from parts supplied to you.
- Learn basic computer programming and use it to control your robot
- Take your robot to competitions with other schools
- Have a BLAST!

ASB (Associate Student Body): Mrs. Gourley

Objective: The objective for ASB Members is to provide an avenue for the elected students to experience the value of serving their classmates while learning leadership skills that will positively impact their future.

STUDENT COUNCIL: Mrs. Gourley

Objective: The objective for Student Council Members is to provide an avenue for the elected students to experience the value of serving their classmates while learning leadership skills that will positively impact their future.

JUNIOR HIGH LEADERSHIP: Mr. Deutsch

Objective: Students will be elected for leadership positions each spring. They will plan all class parties throughout the year. They will serve their fellow classmates with enthusiasm and integrity and are expected to attend the ACSI conference in the fall. These students will be placed in the leadership class which will prepare them for high school service.

XTREME GRACE: Sandie Brooks

Objective: Implementing the objectives of the Fine Arts program in integrity and excellence, developing gifts with an overwhelming energy and contemporary style, encouraging students to define choices, attitudes and morals with a musical message, Xtreme GRACE is for the versatile and dedicated vocalist who is dedicated to furthering their talents and strengths.

BOOK CLUB: Mrs. Quick

Objective: The main objective of the Book Club is to celebrate books and the people who read them! One day a week members of the book club get to bring their lunch to the library for a lively discussion about the book currently being read. The atmosphere is relaxed and it is most important that everyone feels included and welcome.

ACSI SCIENCE FAIR: Ryan Anthony/Sue Howard

Objective: To allow students at GBHS the opportunity to increase their skills in the field of science through experimentation and research with ACSI science fair project and participate against other Christian schools in Southern CA.

INVISIBLE CHILDREN: Jennifer Starkey

Objective: The objective of the Invisible Children Club is to help students become more aware and involved in the needs of the global community. The club will join with other schools nation wide to raise awareness for the war ravaging Northern Uganda and the affects it has had specifically on the children there, as well as to raise money to help rebuild schools in Uganda.

BARNABAS CLUB: Gina Hardy

Objective: The Barnabas Club is a community service oriented club. We are looking to go beyond studying the words of the Lord and to do His work and share his love with others. “Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing.” I Thessalonica 5:1

G POWER:

Objective: The objective of G Power is to challenge the participants physical condition, develop their stamina, and prepare them mentally to compete at the highest level.

CREATIVE WRITING: Mr. Starkey

Objective: The Creative Writing Club exists to give students an opportunity to expand and refine their artistic abilities in the area of creative writing. The club involves regular writing, peer criticism, discussion and revision of original short stories, poetry, drama, etc. The club also stresses student publication, and presents numerous opportunities for students to submit their writing to various publications and writing/scholarship contests. It is also a future goal of the club to develop and edit a literary/artistic magazine that will be published in-house. This magazine will open up more opportunities to the rest of the student body, for them to publish and showcase their artistic abilities.

HOMEWORK CLUB: Mrs. Howard

Objective: The objective of Homework Club is to assist students with any subject homework after school; including studying for test –like a one stop shop- and give helpful hints through “brain gym exercises” if students are interested.

WILDERNESS SURVIVAL CLUB: Blair Edwards

Objective: The objective of this club is to introduce students to basic wilderness survival techniques, outdoor science, and give them an appreciation for as well as a healthy fear for God’s creation.